

| | |
|---|---|
| | - State Public Art Program |
| ● | - City/County Public Art Program |
| T | - Transit Public Art Program (Rail, Airport, Bus, Port Authority) |
| ▲ | - United States Urban Arts Federation member (USUAF) |

NOTE: The U.S. General Services Administration's (GSA) Art in Architecture Program allocates one-half of one percent of the estimated construction cost for public art at eligible Federal buildings across the US. The GSA is based in Washington, D.C. and oversees public art projects in all 50 states.

Key

Public Art Programs in the United States

State, City, County and Transit Programs

2013